

What does travel insurance give?

Travel insurance is a type of insurance that comprehensively protects people going on a domestic or foreign trip against the effects of unforeseen events. Travel insurance provided by eSky includes third party liability insurance (TPL), personal accident insurance (PAI), medical costs and a number of additional types of protection, e.g. home insurance for the time of departure, maritime and mountain rescue operations or ATM cash withdrawal insurance.

What does travel insurance cover?

Travel insurance purchased at eSky includes, among others:

- third party liability insurance and property insurance,
- personal accident insurance (PAI),
- medical costs insurance, including exacerbation of a chronic condition (e.g. diabetes),
- insurance of rescue costs in the mountains (including ski slopes) and at sea,
- · covering the costs of medical transport,
- compensation for delayed or canceled flights and for delayed or damaged baggage,
- in the event of closure of ski slopes: reimbursement of the costs of equipment rental and purchase of ski passes and compensation for each day of closure.

Travel insurance purchased on eSky also covers for practice of amateur sports (including: skiing, snowboarding, surfing, trekking, etc.) and performing intellectual work during holidays (e.g. in the case of workation). The scope of insurance only differs depending on whether you are going on a domestic or foreign trip.

Travel insurance: benefits

Taking out travel insurance is a wise choice for any trip. Thanks to the wide scope of coverage and low price, this type of insurance brings many benefits, including:

- protection against unexpected expenses during the trip,
- 24/7 helpline in case of unforeseen events,
- securing the health and well-being of travelers (including the elderly, children, etc.),
- protection against the effects of possible accidents, e.g. on a slope or at sea,
- and above all pure joy of travel!

Travel insurance: for whom?

Travel insurance will work for every tourist trip. Due to its scope and lack of restrictions, it can be purchased for both an infant and an elderly person. We recommend taking out insurance by all people planning a trip, in particular families with children, the elderly or going on a trip for amateur sports, e.g. skiing or snowboarding or surfing.

How to buy travel insurance?

Travel insurance can be purchased very easily. All you need to do is go to the insurance page on eSky, and then enter the required information in the search engine - the destination, travel dates, and the number of people to be covered by insurance. After going to the booking form, you must provide the details of the insured persons, select the method of payment and pay for the order. Your travel insurance will be valid from the beginning to the end of the trip.

